Donna Burgess creates images that define the Emerald Coast

Want to relive that perfect sunset on a Sandestin beach from the comfort of your own living room every day? Just visit the Donna Burgess Gallery at The Market Shops at Sandestin, where you can take a part of the beauty of Florida's Emerald Coast back home to enjoy year-round.

Burgess is famous in Northwest Florida for capturing the beauty and joy of coastal life through her watercolor interpretations, bold acrylics on canvas and award-winning festival poster art. She has created the festival poster for the Sandestin Wine Festival throughout its 21-year existence.

The artist has expanded her gallery at The Market Shops, which she first opened in 1999. She has installed new equipment, which allows her to stretch canvases, cut mats and customize framing for customers on site. Her state-of-the-art computerized mat cutter allows customers to select their own font style, insert clip art and more – all in just a few minutes. It is the only frame shop offering these customized services in the local area.

Due to popular demand, Burgess recently began a watercolor workshop program. She plans to hold four, three-day watercolor painting workshops per year for all levels of artists. Visit www.artzbydonnaburgess.com for information about upcoming classes.
